

NORWOOD PARK HISTORICAL SOCIETY

5624 N Newark Ave, Chicago, IL 60631 773-631-4633

WHAT NPHS MEMBERSHIP MEANS...

- Participation in an all-volunteer organization that depends on memberships, donations, and events for funding.
- 100% of the Membership fee is used to defray the cost of “keeping the lights on” and provide programs throughout the year in Chicago’s oldest house (1833), the Noble-Seymour-Crippen House.
- Members receive the NPHS monthly newsletter with information on upcoming events, including monthly general meetings.
- Access to the NPHS Museum, open to the public on Saturdays, year-round with rotating displays of historical significance.
- Access to the Society’s fifty years of research into the history of our community and help for members in conducting a house history search.
- Access to a “Members Only” page on the NPHS website.
- Participation in the selection of the Society’s leadership (Officers & Board).
- Taking an active role in preserving the Noble-Seymour-Crippen House, Chicago’s oldest house and promoting the history of the Norwood Park Community.
